

Dr. Michael I. Yarymovych

*Sarasota Space Associates
Senior Mentor, USAF Scientific Advisory Board*

EDUCATION

Columbia University, Institute of Flight Structures
D. Eng. Sc., Engineering Mechanics, 1960
M. S., Engineering Mechanics, 1956
New York University
B. Aeronautical Engineering, 1955

WORK EXPERIENCE

Sarasota Space Associates, Aerospace Consultancy
President, 2003 - Present
ANSER Corp
Chief Scientific Advisor, Member of Board of Trustees, 1998 - 2003
NATO
Chairman of AGARD and Research and Technology Board, 1991 - 2000
The Boeing Company
VP, International Technology; VP, Missile Defense Systems, 1997 - 1998
Rockwell International
VP and Associate Director, Systems Development Center; VP, Advanced Systems Development; VP, Engineering, North American Aerospace Operations, 1977 - 1997
US Energy Research and Development Administration
Assistant Administrator for Field Operations, 1975 - 1977
United States Air Force
Chief Scientist, 1973 - 1975
NATO AGARD
Director, 1973 - 1975
United States Air Force
Deputy (Requirements) Assistant Secretary R&D, 1968 - 1970
National Aeronautics and Space Administration
Technical Director, Air Force Manned Orbital Laboratory Program; Assistant Director, Flight Systems, Apollo Program, 1962 - 1968
AVCO Corp.
Project Manager, 1960 - 1962

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Space systems, reconnaissance and surveillance, missile defense, space and aero structures, systems engineering, and foreign technology assessment.

PROFESSIONAL/SCIENTIFIC/ HONORARY AFFILIATIONS

Fellow and Past President, AIAA; Fellow, American Astronautical Society; President, International Academy of Astronautics; Air Force Exceptional Civilian Service Award (4 times); NATO RTO von Karman Medal; ERDA Distinguished Service Award.